

inspiration

1 Like her evocative paintings, artist Gwyneth Johnstone's Norfolk cottage is full of rustic charm. A pair of colourful patchwork floral curtains like those hanging

The World Of Interiors September 2007, pg 164

5 If you're coveting the compass-rose woodwork in the floors at La Maison de l'Armateur (page 112), make a bearing for Decorative Imaging, which combines traditional skills and digital photographic technology to create durable faux-inlay tiles from $20 per sq ft. Ring 001 917 804 9961, or visit decorativeimaging.net ■

Maison de l'Armateur's interior. Braquenié's 'Rubans Mozart' (left; £90.67 per m), which lines the walls of a guest-bedroom alcove (page 109), is available from Pierre Frey (020 7376 5599; pierrefrey.com), while the embroidered 'Benedicte' curtain fabric (right; £71 per m) in the music room (page 113) is by Colefax & Fowler (020 7244 7427; colexfax.com).

4 Medallions and nymphs decorate La Maison de l'Armateur's dining room (page 110). Plaster specialists Hayles & Howe (0117 9246673; haylesandhowe.com) can replicate this scheme from £5,000 per panel. For the background, try this 'Lubworth Blue' paint (£23.99 per 2.5 litres) from Farrow & Ball (01202 876141; farrow-ball.com).

5 If you're coveting the compass-rose woodwork in the floors at La Maison de l'Armateur (page 112), make a bearing for Decorative Imaging, which combines traditional skills and digital photographic technology to create durable faux-inlay tiles from $20 per sq ft. Ring 001 917 804 9961, or visit decorativeimaging.net ■